INTRODUCTION[1]

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

All praise is due to Allâh who stipulated du'â' and peace and salutations to Muhammad ﷺ who taught us the ways and means of protecting ourselves from calamities. Peace and salutations to his Companions who guided us to the path leading us out of every type of distress. [And peace and salutations] to the 'ulamâ' and auliyâ' of his ummah who exhausted all their energy and expended maximum effort to find ways and means for the cure of our spiritual ailments.
There is not a single person who is not in need of every type of goodness and success. It is for this reason that Allâh ﷻ provided various means and opened numerous doors for goodness and success in both the worlds. This He did, so that those who are in need may seek assistance via these avenues and gain salvation from difficulties and calamities. The effects of all means apart from du'â' are very restricted [and not all-embracing]. The aim of the natural means [such as agriculture, trade, medicine] is worldly success, although they can indirectly assist one's dîn as well. As for the Shar'î means [such as fasting, salâh, and hajj], their actual purpose is religious success although they are beneficial in one's material life as well. However, du'â' is the only method which has been stipulated equally for worldly and dînî success at the same time.

Due to this comprehensive nature of du'â', its efficacy and importance are obvious. It is for this reason that encouragement, virtue and emphasis in this regard are mentioned again and again in the Qur'ân and Hadîth. Allâh ﷻ says: "Make du'â' to Me, I will accept it." Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "The greatest act of worship is du'â'". He also said: "The doors of acceptance have been opened for the person who has been blessed with the opportunity of making du'â'." Other Traditions state: "The doors of paradise are opened." "The doors of mercy are opened." Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "The most beloved thing which can be asked of Allâh ﷻ is to ask Him for peace and prosperity." We learn from this that we are also ordered to ask for worldly needs. Du'â' comes to one's aid even at the time when a calamity is befalling one. It also wards off impending calamities. At times, the moment a calamity descends, du'â' confronts it and there is a struggle between the two till the day of resurrection.

We learn from this that du'â' is far more beneficial than all other types of precautions and plans. We also learn that by continuously making du'â' before a calamity, the calamity does not befall one through the barakah of this du'â'. We further learn that another form of acceptance of du'â' is that, by virtue of the du'â', a calamity is delayed. Therefore, one should not be despondent after making du'â', irrespective of whether one knows that the du'â' has been accepted or not.

Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "There isn't anything greater than du'â' in the sight of Allâh ﷻ." Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "The one who wishes that Allâh ﷻ accepts his du'â' at the time of difficulties, should make it a point of making du'â' to Him in abundance during times of prosperity." We learn from this that the effect of making du'â' at the time when one is not experiencing any difficulties is realized at the time of difficulties.
Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "Do not lose courage in making du'â' because nothing is lost while making du'â'."
Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "Du'â' is the weapon of the Muslim, the support of dîn, and the light of the earth and heavens." Once Rasûlullâh ﷺ passed by a community of people who were afflicted with a calamity. Upon seeing them, he said: "Why do these people not ask Allâh ﷻ for peace and prosperity?"
Rasûlullâh ﷺ said: "There is no Muslim who persists in du'â' and yet does not receive [i.e. his du'â' is bound to be accepted]. He either receives immediately, or it is stored for him for the future." We learn from this that du'â's are certainly accepted, but the forms [of acceptance] differ. Sometimes, the person receives the very thing that he asked for, while sometimes it is stored for him for the future. We learnt previously that at times a calamity is delayed by the barakah of du'â'. In short, by stretching your hands before Allâh ﷻ, you certainly receive something.
Despite [all the above virtues of du'â'], it is seen that most of the people, let alone the masses, even the elite are totally disinclined and inattentive to du'â'. Even the short times of du'â', such as after the five daily salâh, people make a du'â' which they had memorized. But there is no change in their condition nor any eagerness in their du'â'. They don't even realize this fact that this petition which is presented before Allâh ﷻ and this act of pleading to Him again and again is a most effective and supreme method of gaining success. This is similar to one beseeching the leaders and rulers of the world again and again – this being considered to be a powerful means of accomplishing one's purpose. By repeating one's requests and needs, one's wishes and ambitions grow and are revived. Only if a serious calamity befalls someone and all available means are of no avail, then one is compelled to turn to Allâh ﷻ. And that too, not through du'â'. Instead, all efforts are directed to some wazîfah, 'amal, etc. irrespective of whether such a thing is in accordance with the Sharî'âh or not. Even if a person was extremely cautious and took full consideration of acting in accordance with the Sharî'ah, how can these 'amals have the same barakah as the du'â's taught to us by Allâh ﷻ and His Rasûl ﷺ?

In short, there are certain shortcomings with regard to making du'â'. They are:

1. There is no importance given to du'â' except when there is a severe need to do so.
2. Even when there is a dire need to do so, the du'â's taught to us by Allâh ﷻ and His Rasûl ﷺ are abandoned and instead, new wazîfahs are read.

Introduction

3. Du'â' is made without any yearning or inclination. Du'â' is made without any feeling or attention.
4. There is no conviction and anticipation in the acceptance of du'â'.
5. One expects the du'â' to be accepted immediately. If there is any delay [in the acceptance of the du'â'], one becomes frustrated and gives up making du'â'.

In order to compensate for these shortcomings and keeping in mind the needs of the time, it was felt appropriate to compile the comprehensive du'â's that are mentioned in the Qur'ân and Hadîth. The du'â's mentioned in the Qur'ân and Hadîth surpass all other du'â's on the basis of several matters. They are:

1. When the ruler himself gives you the method [and words] of making a request, there remains no doubt in the fulfillment of that request. Similarly, the du'â's which Allâh ﷻ Himself instructed, whether through the Qur'ân or through Rasûlullâh ﷺ, are certainly most likely to be accepted.
2. The extent to which our spiritual and material needs have been considered in these du'â's, can never be covered by any forms of supplications which we may compose.
3. Sometimes we display lack of respect in the theme of the du'â'. Due to this, the du'â' becomes a source of our destruction. For example, a Sahâbî had made du'â' for sabr (patience). Rasûlullâh ﷺ told him that he had > actually made du'â' for some calamity [because patience is only exercised at the time of some calamity]. Another example is that of a Sahâbî who made the du'â' that whatever punishment has been set-aside for him in the hereafter should be given to him in this world. Rasûlullâh ﷺ reprimanded him against such a du'â'. The son of another Sahâbî had asked for a white mansion in the right side of paradise in his du'â'. Upon hearing this, his father corrected him. In short, by formulating one's own du'â's, there is the possibility of such errors. As for the du'â's which are laid down in the Qur'ân and Hadîth, they are devoid of such errors.

The most virtuous and most perfect method of du'â' is to make du'â' in exactly the same words as mentioned [in the Qur'ân and Hadîth]. However, since the resolve of the masses is weak, it is not expected of them to memorize the actual du'â's and then to understand the meanings and translation thereof, which in actual fact is an easy way of concentration and for the presence of heart [when making du'â']. Based on this, and in order to make it easy for them, it was felt appropriate to select a few comprehensive du'â's and to translate them. These have been divided into seven sections, one for each day of the week. This book, as a whole, thereby compensates for all the above-mentioned shortcomings [with regard to making du'â']. This book is such that it can be read both at home and while travelling.

(To be recited before each manzil)

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

We praise You, O the One who is the best upon whom hope could be placed, and the most honourable of those who are beseeched. [We praise You] over the fact that You taught us accepted supplications. [These supplications] are a source of gaining proximity to Allâh ﷻ and receiving the du'âs of Rasûlullâh ﷺ. Send, then, total mercy upon him for as long as the western and southern winds blow and for as long as branches grow forth from the roots (i.e. until the day of resurrection).
We now ask You for that which we shall say [in the forthcoming manzil]. It is our duty to ask [of You] and it is Your task to accept [our supplications].

THE FIRST MANZIL SATURDAY

I commence in the name of Allah Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

1. O our Sustainer! Give us the good of this world and the good of the hereafter, and save us from the punishment of the fire.
2. O our Sustainer! Bestow patience upon us, make our feet firm and give us victory over the unbelieving people.
3. O our Sustainer! Take us not to task if we forget or err. O our Sustainer! Place not upon us a heavy burden as You had placed on the people before us. O our Sustainer! Make us not bear that burden for which we have no strength. And pardon us, and forgive us, and have mercy on us. You alone are our Master. Give us, then, victory over the unbelievers.
4. O our Sustainer! Do not deviate our hearts after having guided us, and give us Your mercy, surely You alone are the giver. O our Sustainer! We have brought îmân. Forgive us, then, our sins and save us from the punishment of the fire.[1]

[1] This du'â' teaches us not to be arrogant after being guided as Allâh can snatch away our guidance.

31. O our Sustainer! It is in You alone that we have placed our trust, and it is to You alone that we have turned, and it is to You alone that we have to eventually return. O our Sustainer! Make us not a temptation for the unbelievers. And forgive us, O our Sustainer! You alone are almighty, wise.
32. O our Sustainer! Complete for us our light [by making it permanent] and forgive us, for surely, You have power over everything.
33. O my Sustainer! Forgive me, my parents, and whoever enters my house as a believer, and [forgive] all the believing men and believing women.

[1] The retribution asked for concerns people who wish to distort the truth and mislead others. It does not pertain to worldly affairs.

[2] The importance of having a clean heart towards one and all is emphasized here. A clean heart means that one does not wish harm to befall anyone despite having a natural dislike for him.

34. O Allah! Wash away my sins with ice water and hail-stones, and purify my heart from sins just as a white cloth is purified from dirt. And cause a great distance between me and my sins just as You caused a great distance between east and west.
35. O Allah! Give to my soul its piety and purify it – You alone are the best to purify it, You alone are its owner and master.
36. We ask You for all the good which Your prophet, Muhammad ﷺ, had asked You.
37. We ask You for the means of Your forgiveness, deeds which can cause us to attain salvation, abstention and security from every sin, abundance in every good deed, the achievement of paradise and salvation from hell.
38. I ask You for beneficial knowledge.
39. O Allah! Forgive me my sins [which I committed] unwittingly and wittingly.
40. O Allah! Forgive me my mistakes, my ignorance, my excesses against myself, and all that You are more aware of than myself.

THE SECOND MANZIL SUNDAY

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

1. O my Sustainer! Help me and do not help anyone against me. Grant me victory and do not give anyone victory over me. Devise plans in my favour and do not allow the plans of anyone to work against me [to my detriment]. Guide me and make guidance easy for me. Help me against those who oppress me. O my Sustainer! Make me such that I remember You abundantly, that I am ever grateful to You, that I am ever fearful of You, that I am ever submissive to You, that I am ever obedient to You, that I find solace from You alone, that I turn my attention to You alone, and that I turn to You alone.
2. O my Sustainer! Accept my repentance, wash off my sins, accept my supplication, uphold my proof, make my tongue speak the truth, give guidance to my heart, and remove malice from within my chest.
3. O Allah! Forgive us, have mercy on us, be pleased with us, admit us into paradise, save us from the fire, and set right all our affairs.
4. O Allah! Create love among our hearts, set right our mutual relations, show us the paths of peace, remove us from darkness and [take us] towards light, cause me to die once You know that death is better for me. I ask You for Your fear when I am concealed [from everyone] and when I am in the presence [of everyone], and sincerity in prosperity and adversity. I ask You for bounties which do not end and coolness of the eyes which does not end. I ask You for submission to Your decree, a pleasurable life after death, the joy of looking at Your countenance, and the desire of meeting You. I seek refuge with You from the harm of harmful things and from a tribulation which causes one to go astray.[1] O Allah! Embellish us with the beauty of îmân and make us guides who are themselves guided.

20. O Allah! I ask You for good – all of it – in the present and in the future, that which I know of and that which I do not know of.
21. O Allah! I ask You for all the good which Your servant and Prophet ﷺ had asked for. O Allah! I ask You for paradise and all that would draw me closer to it be it by word or deed. I ask that all which You have decided for me be to my betterment.
22. I ask You that whatever matter You have decided for me, the outcome of it should be good.

The second manzil-Sunday

23. O Allah! Make the outcome of all our affairs good and protect us from the disgrace of this world and the punishment of the hereafter.
24. O Allah! Safeguard me with Islam while I am standing. Safeguard me with Islam while I am sitting. Safeguard me with Islam while I am lying down. Do not give an enemy or an envious person the cause to take malicious pleasure in any mishap which befalls me. O Allah! I ask You for all good, the treasures of which are in Your hands.[1]
25. I ask You for all the good which is in Your hands.
26. O Allah! Do not leave any sin of ours without having forgiven it, nor any worry without having removed it, nor any debt without having fulfilled it, nor any needs of this world and the hereafter without having fulfilled them, O the most merciful of the merciful.
27. O Allah! Assist us in Your remembrance, in expressing gratitude to You and in worshipping You in a most beautiful manner.
28. O Allah! Grant me contentment over that which You have provided me and give me blessings (barakah) in it. [O Allah!] Oversee, in the best manner, every single thing which is concealed from me.
29. O Allah! I ask You for a pure life, a peaceful death, and a passing away which is neither disgraceful nor dishonourable.

[1] We learn from this that our safety lies only in Islam.

The second manzil-Sunday

30. O Allâh! I am weak. Give strength, then, to my weakness by Your pleasure and take me, by my forelock, towards good and make Islam the limit of my desire. I am disgraced, so give me honour. I am poor, so give me sustenance.[1]

31. O Allâh! I ask You for the best questioning, the best du'â, the best success, the best action, the best reward, the best life and the best death. [O Allâh!] keep me steadfast, make heavy my scales [wherein my deeds will be weighed], realise my îmân, raise my rank, and accept my salâh. I ask You for the elevated stages in paradise. Âmîn. O Allâh! I ask You for the initial portion of all good, the ending of it, the most comprehensive of it, the first of it, the last of it, the outward of it and the essence of it.

    O Allâh! I ask You for the best which I will do, the best which I do, the best of what I practise, the best of what is concealed and the best of what is exposed.

32. O Allâh! Make the most expansive of Your sustenance upon me be at the time of my old age and when my life is beginning to leave me.[2]

[2] Generally, it is difficult to sustain oneself in old age. Rasûlullâh ﷺ taught us this du'â' before the advent of old-age.

35. I ask You for self-sufficiency and the sufficiency of my associates.

O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from an ill-fated age and from the trials of the chest. I seek refuge in Your honour – there is none worthy of worship but You - that You lead me astray, and [I seek refuge in You] from adverse calamities, the attainment of misfortune, an evil decree, the malice of enemies, from the evil which I committed and the evil which I did not commit, from the evil which I am aware of and from the evil which I am unaware of. [I seek refuge in You] from the cessation of Your bounties, the turning away of Your peace, Your sudden punishment, and all that which would warrant Your wrath. [I seek refuge in You] from the evil of my hearing, from the evil of my eyesight, from the evil of my tongue, from the evil of my heart, and from the evil of my semen. [I seek refuge in You] from poverty, and that I oppress or am oppressed, from something falling upon me [and thereby crushing me], from falling upon something [and thereby crushing myself]. [I seek refuge in You] from drowning, from getting burnt, from Satan confusing me at the time of death, that I die in Your path whilst fleeing [from the battlefield], and that I die from being stung by a poisonous creature.

The third manzil-Monday

THE THIRD MANZIL
MONDAY

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

1. O Allâh! Make me one who is extremely patient and one who is extremely grateful. Make me insignificant in my own eyes but great in the eyes of the people.[1]
2. O Allâh! Bestow abundance, lushness and peace in our land. Do not deprive me of the blessing of what You have given me, and do not put me into temptation for that which You have not given me.
3. O Allâh! You have made my physical appearance beautiful. Now make beautiful my character.
4. Remove the anger of my heart and continually save me from trials that would lead me astray as long as You keep us alive.
5. O Allâh! Teach me the code of îmân [i.e. the kalimah] at the time of death.
6. O Allâh! I ask You for the good that is in this day and the good that is to come thereafter. O Allâh! I ask you for the good of this day, its victory, its assistance, its illumination, its blessing and its guidance.

[1] The greatness that is sought is as a shield from the mischief of people and not as a source of fame.

٧ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْٓ أَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِيْ دِيْنِيْ وَدُنْيَايَ وَأَهْلِيْ وَمَالِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتُرْ عَوْرَتِيْ وَاٰمِنْ رَوْعَتِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْنِيْ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيَّ وَمِنْ خَلْفِيْ وَعَنْ يَّمِيْنِيْ وَعَنْ شِمَالِيْ وَمِنْ فَوْقِيْ وَأَعُوْذُ بِعَظْمَتِكَ أَنْ أُغْتَالَ مِنْ تَحْتِيْ ★

The third manzil-Monday

7. O Allâh! I ask You pardon and peace in my dîn, in my worldly life, in my family and in my wealth. O Allâh! Conceal my faults and change my fear into tranquillity. O Allâh! Safeguard me from the front, from behind, from the right, from the left, and from above me. And I seek refuge through Your majesty from being taken unawares from below me.
8. O the Living! O the Self-subsisting! It is through Your mercy that I am seeking help. Set right all my affairs and do not make me dependent on my self even for a single moment.
9. I ask You by the illumination of Your countenance with which the heavens and earth are illuminated, and through every right which is Yours, and by the right which the beggars have over You, that You forgive me and that You give me refuge from the fire by Your power.
10. O Allâh! Make the first portion of this day into righteousness, the middle portion of it into prosperity, and the last portion of it into success. O the most merciful of the merciful! I ask You for the best of this world and the hereafter.
11. O Allâh! Forgive me my sins, keep my Satan far away from me, open up all that is closed to me, make my scale [of good deeds] heavy, and place me in the highest stage [of paradise].

13. O Allâh! The lord of the seven heavens and whatever they shade, and the lord of the lands and whatever they carry, and the lord of the devils and those whom they have led astray, You be my guardian from the evil of all Your creation from anyone of them wronging me or transgressing against me. Powerful is Your protection and exalted is Your name.
14. There is none worthy of worship besides You. You have no partner. Glory to You. O Allâh! I seek forgiveness from You for my sins and I ask You for Your mercy.

I ask You by means of every name of Yours with which You named Yourself, or which You revealed in Your book, or which You taught to anyone of Your creation, or which You reserved with You in the knowledge of the unseen, that You make the glorious Qur'ân the fountain of my heart, the light of my eyes, the eliminator of my grief and the remover of my worries.

The third manzil-Monday

I beseech You the beseeching of a wretched sinner, I ask You the asking of a fearful person who has been afflicted by a calamity, and the asking of the person whose neck is submitted before You, whose tears are flowing for You, whose body is humbled before You, and who has submitted himself before You. O Allâh! Do not make me despondent in my supplication to You. Be kind and merciful to me. O the best of those who is asked! And O the best of those who bestows! O Allâh! It is to You alone that I complain about the weakness of my strength, my lack of resources, and my insignificance in the eyes of the people. O the most merciful of the merciful! To whom are you handing me over? Is it to an enemy who looks at me with a scowl, or is it to a relative to whom You have given control over me? If You are not angry with me, I am not bothered. However, Your peace is more sufficient for me.

29. O Allâh! We ask You for hearts which are compassionate, which are humble and which constantly repent in Your cause.
30. O Allâh! I ask You for îmân which is firmly attached to my heart and true conviction till I realize that nothing can afflict me except that which You have written for me. And [I ask You for] contentment with that which You have apportioned to me of livelihood.

٣١ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ كَالَّذِيْ تَقُوْلُ وَخَيْرًا مِمَّا نَقُوْلُ

The third manzil-Monday

31. O Allâh! To You is praise as much as You ascribe to Yourself and much more than what we ascribe to You.

O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from abhorrent manners, actions, desires, and illnesses. We seek refuge in You from the evils which Your prophet Muhammad ﷺ sought refuge. And [we seek refuge in You from] an evil neighbour in our place of residence, for a travelling companion is bound to leave.[1] [We seek refuge in You from] the overpowering of enemies and the taunts of the opposition. [We seek refuge in You from] hunger, for it is surely an evil companion. [We seek refuge in You from] treachery for it is surely an evil confidant. [We seek refuge in You] that we turn back on our heels or that we fall into temptation and thereby turn away from our religion. [We seek refuge in You from] all temptations, be they external or internal, from an evil day, an evil night, an evil hour, and an evil companion.

[1] A travelling companion's evil will sooner or later cease [when the two part ways], whereas an evil neighbour's mischief overshadows a person perpetually.

The fourth manzil-Tuesday

THE FOURTH MANZIL TUESDAY

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful.

1. O Allâh! For You alone is my salâh, my worship, my living, my dying. To You alone is my return, and to You alone belongs whatever I am going to leave behind.
2. O Allâh! I ask You for the good which is brought by the winds.
3. O Allâh! Make me such that I am most thankful to You, that I remember You excessively, that I accept Your advice, that I remember Your bequest. O Allâh! Our hearts, our entire being, and our limbs are in Your hands. You have not given us total control over any of these things. Since You have done this to us, You alone should remain our helper and guide us to the straight path.
4. O Allâh! Make Your love the most beloved of things to me and make Your fear the most fearful of things in my sight. Cut off from me the needs of this world by instilling in me the desire to meet You. When You give satisfaction to the people of this world with their world [worldly life], give me satisfaction in engaging in Your worship.

٥ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ أَسْأَلُكَ الصِّحَّةَ وَالْعِفَّةَ وَالْأَمَانَةَ وَحُسْنَ الْخُلُقِ وَالرِّضٰى بِالْقَدَرِ ★

The fourth manzil-Tuesday

5. O Allâh! I ask You for good health, chastity, peace, good character, and to be pleased with what has been destined [for me].
6. O Allâh! For You alone is praise together with gratitude. To You alone is gratitude together with grace. O Allâh! I ask You the taufiq [the direction to that which is good and correct] for the good actions which are liked by You, to have genuine trust in You, and to have good thoughts about You.
7. O Allâh! Open the ears of my heart for Your remembrance, and endow me with obedience to You and to Your Messenger ﷺ, and [endow me] with practise upon Your book [Qur'ân].[1]
8. O Allâh! Make me such that I fear You as though I am seeing You all the time till I meet You. Make me fortunate with Your obedience and do not condemn me with Your disobedience.
9. O Allâh! Be kind to me by easing all difficulties for me. Surely the easing of all difficulties is very easy for You. And I ask You for ease and pardon in this world and in the hereafter. O Allâh! Pardon me, for surely You are oft-pardoning, kind.

The fourth manzil-Tuesday

10. O Allâh! Purify my heart from hypocrisy, my actions from ostentation, my tongue from lies, my eyes from treachery; for surely You know the treachery of the eyes and whatever the hearts conceal.
11. O Allâh! Endow me with eyes which weep profusely and thereby drench the heart with flowing tears out of Your fear before the arrival of the time when tears turn into blood and jaws turn into embers.
12. O Allâh! Grant me peace in Your power, admit me into Your mercy, let my life-span pass in Your obedience, let my end be with the best of my deeds, and make paradise the reward of this.
13. O Allâh! The remover of worry and sorrow. The acceptor of the supplication of those who are restless. The beneficent and merciful of this world. It is You alone who will have mercy on me. Have mercy on me, then, with such mercy that it makes me indifferent to the mercy of those other than You.
14. O Allâh! I ask You for unexpected good and I seek refuge in You from unexpected harm.

16. O Allâh! Choose for me [what is best for me] and like for me [what is best for me].
17. O Allâh! Let me willingly accept Your commands and give me blessings in that which is destined for me so that I do not desire the hastening of that which You have delayed [for me], nor the delaying of that which You have hastened [for me].

And You can do whatever You will.

29. O Allâh! You are not a deity whom we concocted, nor a sustainer whose remembrance disappears and whom we invented. Neither do You have partners who issue orders with You nor did we have a god before You in whom we could seek refuge and leave You aside. Nor did anyone assist You in creating us whereby we could consider him to be Your partner. You are blessed and You are exalted. We therefore ask You - there is none worthy of worship beside You - that You forgive me.
30. O Allâh! You created my soul and You will cause it to die. Its death and life is therefore only for You. If You cause it to live, protect it with the protection whereby You protect Your righteous servants. If You cause it to die, forgive it and have mercy on it.
31. O Allâh! Assist me with knowledge, embellish me with forbearance, dignify me with piety, and beautify me with peace.
32. O Allâh! Let not a time engulf me and let not these people experience a time wherein a learned person ['âlim] is not followed, and wherein a person of dignity is not respected. Their hearts will be the hearts of non-Arabs and their tongues will be the tongues of Arabs. [They are non-Arabs at heart but portray themselves to be Arabs].
33. O Allâh! I am taking from You a promise which You must never go back on. I am only a human. Therefore, whichever Muslim I harm, I abuse, I strike or

O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from leprosy, dissension, hypocrisy, evil characteristics, and from the evil which You are aware of. I seek refuge in Allâh from the condition of the inmates of hell, from hell itself, from speech and actions which would take a person closer to hell, and from the evil over which You have complete control. I seek refuge in You from the evil that is in this day, from the evil that follows it, from the evil of my self, from the evil of Satan and associating with him. [I seek refuge in You] that we acquire some evil upon our selves, or that we cause some evil to a Muslim, or that I commit an error or sin which You do not forgive. [I seek refuge in You] from a constricted place on the day of resurrection.

O Allâh! Make me remember thereof that which I have forgotten, teach me thereof that which I am ignorant about, enable me to recite it by day and night, and make it an intercessor for me, O Sustainer of the worlds!

I have conviction in Your promise. You ordered me, yet I disobeyed You. You prohibited me, yet I carried out [the prohibited act]. This is the place for the one seeking refuge from the fire through You. There is none worthy of worship but You. You are pure. I have wronged myself. Forgive me, then, because none can forgive sins but You.

The fifth manzil-Wednesday

O Allâh! I seek refuge through Your pleasure from Your displeasure, and through Your forgiveness from Your punishment. I seek Your refuge from You. I am unable to praise You. You are worthy of the praise which You showered upon Yourself. O Allâh! We seek Your refuge in You from slipping or from causing someone else to slip, from leading someone astray, from oppressing someone or being oppressed, from acting ignorantly or allowing someone to act ignorantly towards us, that I go astray or am caused to go astray. I seek refuge through Your illuminated countenance – with which the heavens are illuminated, with which darkness is turned into light, with which the affairs of this world and the hereafter are in order – that You descend upon me Your wrath and that You bring down to me Your displeasure. You have the sole right of making [me] accept until You are pleased. There is no way of saving [oneself] from sin and there is no power to worship except through Your help. O Allâh! I seek Your protection just as You protect a small child. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from the evil of two blind things, i.e. a flood [of water] and an attacking camel.

The sixth manzil-Thursday

THE SIXTH MANZIL
THURSDAY

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

1. O Allâh! I ask You, through Muhammad Your prophet, Ibrâhîm Your friend, Mûsâ Your interlocutor, 'Îsâ Your spirit and word. I ask You through the Book of Mûsâ, the Injîl of 'Îsâ, the Zabûr of Dâ'ûd, the Qur'ân of Muhammad ﷺ. I ask You through every revelation You sent, every order which You promulgated, every beggar to whom You gave, every needy person whom You made rich, every rich person whom You made poor, every deviated person whom You guided. I ask You through Your name which You placed on the earth, so it stabilized, which You placed on the heavens, so they became stationary, which You placed on the mountains, so they became firmly embedded. I ask You through Your name whereby Your throne is stable. I ask You through Your clean and pure name which is revealed in Your Book from You, and through Your name which You placed on the day, so it became illuminated, and on the night, so it became dark. I ask You through Your grandeur and Your greatness, and through the illumination of Your countenance – that You bestow upon me the Glorious Qur'ân, that You completely infuse it in my flesh, in my blood, in my hearing, in my seeing, that you make my body act on it through Your power and control because there is no way of turning away from disobedience and no power to worship You except through You. O Allâh! Do not make us fearless of Your secret planning, and do not make us neglectful of Your remembrance. Do not expose us nor make us of the heedless.

2. O Allâh! I ask You for the hastening of Your kindness, the repulsing of Your punishment, and leaving this world towards Your mercy. O the one who suffices [us] from everyone else and the one from whom none can be self-sufficient. O the patron of those who have no patron. O the refuge of those who have no refuge. All hopes have been cut off but from You. Give me salvation from the situation in which I am, and help me against that in which I find myself through Your pure self and through the right which Muhammad ﷺ has over You. Âmîn.
3. O Allâh! Guard me through Your eye which never sleeps, embrace me with Your strength from which no one can be separated, have mercy on me through the power which You have over me so that I am not destroyed. You alone are my hope. Many a favour You bestowed upon me for which my gratitude to You was very little. Many a calamity

You tested me with, upon which my patience was very little. O the one upon whose bounty my gratitude was very little, yet did not deprive me. And O the one upon whose calamity my patience was very little, yet did not abandon me. O the one who saw me committing sins, yet did not disgrace me.

4. O the bestower of favours which never end! O the possessor of bounties which can never be counted! I ask You to send perfect mercy upon Muhammad ﷺ and the family of Muhammad ﷺ. It is only through Your power that I advance against the enemies and tyrants.
5. O Allah! Assist me in my religion through this world and in my hereafter through piety. Protect all those things of mine which are hidden from me. And do not let me rely upon myself in those things which are before me. O the one whom sins do not harm and the one whom forgiveness does not cause any loss! Give me that which does not cause You any loss [forgiveness] and forgive me that which does not cause You any harm [sins], because You alone are the one who gives. I ask You for immediate expanse, beautiful patience, abundant sustenance, and peace from all calamities. I ask You for total peace and I ask You for eternal peace. I ask You for gratitude over the peace You provided me,

7. O Allâh! Make us of Your chosen servants – whose faces and limbs will be effulgent, who shall be Your honoured guests. O Allâh! I ask You for a soul which is satisfied with You, which has conviction in meeting You, which remains happy with Your commands, and which is satisfied with Your gifts.

The sixth manzil-Thursday

O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from a deceptive friend: his eyes are looking at me [with apparent love] while his heart is tearing me apart. When he sees any good [in me], he conceals it. And when he sees any evil [in me], he exposes it. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from intense poverty and extreme need. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from Satan and his army. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from the trials of women. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You that You turn away from me on the day of resurrection. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from every act which would disgrace me. I seek refuge in You from every companion who would harm me. I seek refuge in You from every hope which would cause me to become heedless [of You]. I seek refuge in You from every poverty which would cause me to become forgetful [of You]. I seek refuge in You from affluence which would cause me to exceed the bounds [of the Sharî'ah]. O Allâh! I seek refuge in You from a worrisome death and I seek refuge in You from a sorrowful death.

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

1. O my Sustainer! O my Sustainer! O my Sustainer! O Allâh! O the greatest! O the all-hearing! O the all-seeing! O the one who has no partner and the one who has no adviser! O the creator of the sun and the splendid moon! O the refuge of the one who is afflicted, who is in fear, who is in search of refuge! O the provider of sustenance to a little child! O the joiner of broken bones! I beg of You like the begging of the one who is afflicted, who is in need. Like the begging of the one who is in a calamitous predicament. I beg of You through the knots of honour in Your throne, through the keys of mercy in Your book, through the eight names that are written on the horn of the sun – that You make the Qur'ân the spring of my heart and the remover of all my sorrow.
2. O Allâh! Give us in this world such and such[1]....

   O the comforter of every lonely person! O the companion of every isolated person! O the near who is not far! O the present who is not absent! O the superior who is not inferior! O the living! O the maintainer of all! O the possessor of greatness and honour! O the light

O the inventer of the heavens and the earth! O the upholder of the heavens and the earth! O the possessor of greatness and honour! O the one who responds to the cries of those who cry out [to Him]! O the last resort of those who seek refuge! O the one who gives expansion to those who are disturbed, who gives comfort to those who are in sorrow, and accepts the supplication of those who are uneasy! O the one who gives expansion to the one who is in difficulty! O the lord of the worlds! O the most merciful of the merciful! It is before You alone that all needs are presented.

3. O Allâh! You are the grand creator. You are all-hearing, all-knowing. You are forgiving, merciful. You are the owner of the grand throne. O Allâh! You are gracious, generous, kind. Forgive me, have mercy on me, give me peace, provide me with sustenance, conceal me [my faults], restore my loss, elevate me, guide me and do not lead me astray, admit me into paradise by Your mercy, O the most merciful of the merciful! O Allâh! Make me Yours. Place obedience to You in my heart.[1] Grant me honour in the eyes of the people.

6. O Allâh! CONCLUSION QURUBÂT 'INDALLÂHI WA SALAWÂTIR RASÛL

I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

We send salutations upon His noble prophet

After praising Allâh ﷻ and sending salutation to His Prophet ﷺ, we present this conclusion to this book of supplications titled Qurubât 'indallâhi wa salawâtir rasûl which is actually the essence of Munâjât-e-Maqbûl. I made a few additions to it from the book, Hisn-e-Hasîn, in answer to the request made to me by some friends. I added a few necessary supplications that are made at morning and evening or at specific times and circumstances from the beginning of ones life till the end.

We hope that Allâh ﷻ makes it like the original – beneficial to the people and a remover of every evil and cause of dread. Allâh ﷻ is sufficient for us and the best of guarantors. He is the best master and the best helper.

I commence in the name of Allâh with whose name nothing can harm – neither in the earth nor in the skies. And He is all-hearing, all-knowing.

أَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيٰى وَبِكَ نَمُوْتُ وَإِلَيْكَ النُّشُوْرُ ★

I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allâh from the evil of all the creation. O Allâh! It is solely through Your power that we get up in the morning and it is solely through Your power that we spend the evening. It is solely through Your power that we are alive and it is solely through Your power that we die. And it is to You alone that we are to be raised.

Du'â' for memorizing the Qur'ân

Whoever wishes to memorize the Qur'ân should wake up in the last portion of Friday night [night before the actual day of Friday]. If he is unable to wake up in the last portion, he should wake up in the middle portion. If he is unable to do this also, he should wake up in the first portion of the night. He should then offer four rak'ats of salâh as follows: In the first rak'at he must recite Sûrah al-Fâtihah followed by Sûrah Yâ Sîn. In the second rak'at he must recite Sûrah al-Fâtihah followed by Sûrah ad-Dukhân. In the third rak'at he must recite Sûrah al-Fâtihah followed by Sûrah Alif Lâm Mîm as-Sajdah. In the fourth rak'at he must recite Sûrah al-Fâtihah followed by Sûrah al-Mulk.

Once he completes his salâh he must praise Allâh ﷻ in a beautiful manner. For example, he must say these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لاَ اُحْصِيْ ثَنَآءً عَلَيْكَ أَنْتَ كَمَآ أَثْنَيْتَ عَلٰى نَفْسِكَ

Translation: O Allâh! I cannot encompass Your praises. You are as You have praised Yourself.

He should then send salutations to Rasûlullâh ﷺ in a beautiful manner and upon all the other Prophets as well. For example, he must say these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْأُمِّيِّ الْهَاشِمِيِّ وَعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَأَصْحَابِهٖ الْبَرَرَةِ الْكِرَامِ وَعَلٰى سَآئِرِ النَّبِيِّيْنَ

Translation: O Allâh! Send salutations to Muhammad, the unlettered Hâshimî Prophet, to his pious and noble companions and to all the Prophets.

He should then seek forgiveness for the believing men, believing women and his brothers who passed away before him with îmân. The words of this seeking of forgiveness are mentioned in the Qur'ân as follows:

رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذِيْنَ سَبَقُوْنَا بِالْإِيْمَانِ وَلاَ تَجْعَلْ فِيْ قُلُوْبِنَا غِلاًّ لِّلَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا رَبَّنَآ إِنَّكَ رَءُوْفٌ رَّحِيْمٌ

Translation: O our Sustainer! Forgive us and our brothers who passed away before us with îmân and do not place in our hearts malice towards those who believed. O our Sustainer! Surely You are kind, forgiving.

The person should then read the following du'â':

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمْنِيْ بِتَرْكِ الْمَعَاصِيَ أَبَدًا مَّآ أَبْقَيْتَنِيْ وَارْحَمْنِيْ أَنْ أَتَكَلَّفَ مَا لاَ يَعْنِيْنِيْ وَارْزُقْنِيْ حُسْنَ النَّظَرِ فِيْمَا يُرْضِيْكَ عَنِّيْ ★ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَدِيْعَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ذَا الْجَلاَلِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ وَالْعِزَّةِ الَّتِيْ لاَ تُرَامُ أَسْأَلُكَ يَآ اَللّٰهُ يَا رَحْمٰنُ بِجَلاَلِكَ وَنُوْرِ وَجْهِكَ أَنْ تُلْزِمَ قَلْبِيْ حِفْظَ كِتَابِكَ كَمَا عَلَّمْتَنِيْ وَارْزُقْنِيْٓ أَنْ أَقْرَاَهٗ عَلَى النَّحْوِ الَّذِيْ يُرْضِيْكَ عَنِّيْ ★ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَدِيْعَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ذَا الْجَلاَلِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ وَالْعِزَّةِ الَّتِيْ لاَ تُرَامُ أَسْأَلُكَ يَآ اَللّٰهُ يَا رَحْمٰنُ بِجَلاَلِكَ وَنُوْرِ وَجْهِكَ أَنْ تُنَوِّرَ بِكِتَابِكَ بَصَرِيْ

PRELUDE & BACKGROUND TO HIZBUL BAHR

The hizbul bahr was inspired into the heart of Shâh Abul Hasan Shâdhilî rahmatullâhi 'alayh. The senior mashâ'ikh are in the habit of reading it and permitting their murîds to read it as a means of attaining blessings. There are different ways of reading it. However, the under-mentioned method is that prescribed by Hâjî Imdâdullâh Makkî rahmatullâhi 'alayh and is totally in accordance with the Sunnah.

Important note: Reading this du'â' is certainly a very meritorious act. However, the different du'â's that are mentioned in the Qur'ân and Hadîth are far greater and much more effective. Bear this in mind because many people err in this regard.

Background to hizbul bahr

Reliable 'ulamâ' have stated that Hazrat Shaykh Abul Hasan Shâdhilî rahmatullâhi 'alayh was in Cairo when the days of hajj drew near. The Shaykh said to his friends that he had been [divinely] inspired to perform the hajj and that they should search for a ship. After much inquiry, the murîds could not find any ship other than that which belonged to an old Christian. Eventually, they all boarded this very ship. The anchor was raised and no sooner they left the inhabitance of Cairo, the winds began blowing against them. They remained on the outskirts for a full week – to the extent that they could see the mountains of Cairo. Those who were critical of the Shaykh began taunting him by saying that he had claimed that he had been [divinely] inspired to perform the hajj while he is stuck in these winds despite the time of hajj having drawn so near. This accusation distressed the Shaykh greatly but he remained steadfast and accepted their taunts.

Coincidentally, the Shaykh was sleeping in the afternoon when Allâh ﷻ inspired this du'â' into him. The moment he got up from his sleep he began reciting this du'â'. He also instructed the officers of the ship to place their trust in Allâh ﷻ and to raise the anchor once again. They replied that if we were to raise the anchor, the winds would immediately change our direction and return us to Cairo. The Shaykh asked them not to become agitated, to do what he asked them to do and then see the extraordinary mercy of Allâh ﷻ. No sooner the anchor was raised, a strong wind blew in their favour. It blew so strongly that they were not even able to untie the rope that was attached to the peg. They were forced to cut this rope off. Very soon thereafter, they safely reached their blessed destination.

[Upon witnessing this miracle] the sons of the old Christian embraced Islam. This saddened the father tremendously. That night this old Christian saw a dream in which the Shaykh was entering paradise with a large number of people and his sons were part of this group. The father tried to join his sons but was prevented from doing so by the angels. They dragged him aside saying: "You are not on the same religion as them. What do you want with them?" The following morning the guidance of Allâh ﷻ came to his assistance and he also embraced Islam. He gradually reached a stage whereby he became a high ranking Shaykh and people began seeking his company and proximity.

Hizbul Bahr

HIZBUL BAHR

I commence in the name of Allâh who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

O the High! O the Greatest! O the Forbearing! O the All-knowing! You alone are my Sustainer. Your knowledge alone is sufficient for me. How nice a sustainer is my Sustainer! How nice a sufficer is my Sufficer. You give power to whomever You will. You alone are the powerful, the merciful.

We ask You for protection in all our movements and rests, in our words, in our intentions and in our thoughts from misgivings, doubts and allegations which curtain the hearts from knowing unseen things. The believers have certainly been tried and severely shaken up.

When the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease used to say: "Allâh and His Messenger only promised us delusion," keep us steadfast, then, and give us victory.

وَسَخِّرْ لَنَا هٰذَا الْبَحْرَ كَمَا سَخَّرْتَ الْبَحْرَ لِمُوْسٰى عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَسَخَّرْتَ النَّارَ لِإِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَسَخَّرْتَ الْجِبَالَ وَالْحَدِيْدَ لِدَاوُدَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَسَخَّرْتَ الرِّيْحَ وَالشَّيٰطِيْنَ وَالْجِنَّ لِسُلَيْمَانَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَسَخِّرْ لَنَا كُلَّ بَحْرٍ هُوَ لَكَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالسَّمَآءِ وَالْمُلْكِ وَالْمَلَكُوْتِ وَبَحْرَ الدُّنْيَا وَبَحْرَ الْاٰخِرَةِ وَسَخِّرْ لَنَا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ يَّا مَنْ بِيَدِهٖ مَلَكُوْتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ كٓهٰيٰعٓصٓ كٓهٰيٰعٓصٓ كٓهٰيٰعٓصٓ

These words have been written thrice because they should be read thrice. Upon reading the first word, you should close the fingers of your right hand upon reading each letter in the following manner: upon reading the first letter kâf, close your little finger. On the second letter hâ close the next [ring] finger. On the third letter yâ close your middle finger. On the fourth letter 'ayn close your index finger, and on the fifth letter sâd close your thumb. Upon your second reading of كهيعص open your fingers in the same order as was done above (begin with little finger and end on the thumb). Upon the third reading of كهيعص close the fingers as in the first reading.

Upon reading انصرنا, open your little finger.

for surely You are the best of those who give sustenance. And protect us, for surely You are the best of protectors. Guide us and save us from the oppressing people. Bestow upon us from Yourself a pleasant wind, as is in Your knowledge. Cause it to blow upon us from the treasures of Your mercy. And carry us therewith with honour, peace and security in dîn, in this world and in the hereafter, for You have power over everything. O Allâh! Make easy for us all our affairs...

with comfort to our bodies and hearts, and peace and security in our dîn and in our dunyâ. You be our companion on our journey and a protector of our families [whom we left behind]. And obliterate the faces…

of our enemies and transform them in their places so that they do not have the power to pass by us nor to come towards us. [Just as You said in the Qur'ân]: had We willed, We would surely have wiped out [blinded] their eyes, so that they would struggle for the path, how then would they see? Had We willed, We could have transformed them in their places. Then they would neither have been able to go forward [move about] nor they could have turned back. Yâ Sîn. By the Qur'ân, full of wisdom. Surely you [O Muhammad] are one of the messengers. On the straight path. [This Qur'ân] is a revelation of the All-Mighty, Most-Merciful. In order that you may warn a people whose forefathers were not warned, they are therefore heedless. Indeed the word [of Allâh] has proved true against many of them, yet they do not believe. Surely We put around their necks shackles, reaching up to their chins, so that their heads are forced up. We have set a barrier before them and a barrier behind them, and We have covered them up so that they cannot see. May the faces be distorted. May the faces be distorted. May the faces be distorted.

[As is mentioned in the Qur'ân with regard to the hereafter]: Faces shall be humbled before [Allâh], the Ever Living, the One who sustains and protects all that exists. And he who carried the burden of sin has indeed fallen into loss. T̲â Sîn. T̲a Sîn Mîm. H̲â Mîm 'Ayn Sîn Qâf. [Allâh] joined the two seas – they flow together. I commence in the name of Allâh Who is extremely Beneficent, most Merciful

O Allâh! Send mercy to our leader and master, Muhammad ﷺ, and to the family of our leader and master, Muhammad ﷺ, and send blessings and peace.

O the one who is forever bountiful and kind. Have mercy on this needy sinful servant.

Through the wasîlah of my shaykh Maulânâ Masîhullâh rahmatullâhi 'alayh whose external self was like his internal in its effulgence.

Through the wasîlah of the most accomplished person of his time, Maulânâ Ashraf 'Alî rahmatullâhi 'alayh who invited towards Your path and bore [the responsibilities] of the Qur'ân.

Through the wasîlah of my spiritual guide who is the ghauth of the world and the sun of guidance. Who is the leader of those who are engrossed in [Your] love and are at a loss in [Your] love.

I am referring to Shaykh Imdâdullâh rahmatullâhi 'alayh who is a qutb of high rank and a person of dignity and cognition.

Through the wasîlah of the one who removed the darkness [of the heart] whose name was Nûr Muhammad rahmatullâhi 'alayh. And through the wasîlah of 'Abdur Rahîm rahmatullâhi 'alayh who had lost himself in Allâh.

هُوَ فِي الْغَرَامِ كَطَافِحٍ سَكْرَانِ

وَبِحَقِّ خَيْرِ الْأَصْفِيَآءِ إِمَامِهِمْ

حَسَنٍ وَّلَمْ يَرَ مِثْلَهُ الْعَيْنَانِ

وَبِحَقِّ مَوْلَى الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ أَمِيْرِهِمْ

وَإِمَامِ أَهْلِ الدِّيْنِ وَالْإِيْمَانِ

أَعْنِيْ عَلِيًّا خَيْرَ مَنْ وَّطِئَ الثَّرٰى

مَأْوَى الضِّعَافِ مُجَلِّيَ الْأَحْزَانِ

وَبِحَقِّ سَيِّدِنَا النَّبِيِّ مُحَمَّدٍ

هُوَ لِلْخَلَائِقِ رَحْمَةُ الرَّحْمَانِ

مَنْ فَاقَ كُلَّ الْخَلْقِ فَضْلًا بَاذِخًا

مَنْ سَادَ مَجْدًا عَالَمَ الْإِمْكَانِ

وَبِفَضْلِكَ الْجَمِّ الْعَمِيْمِ إِلٰهَنَا

يَا غَافِرًا لِّلذَّنْبِ وَالْعِصْيَانِ

شجرة إمدادية

قَدْ جَآءَ عَبْدُكَ بَاكِيًا مُّسْتَصْرِخًا

مُتَوَسِّلاً بِأُولٰئِكَ الْأَعْيَانِ

فَاغْفِرْ خَطَايَاهُ وَطَهِّرْ قَلْبَهُ

عَنْ مَّا سِوَاكَ أَيَا رَجَآءَ الْعَانِيْ

سَلِّطْ عَلَيْهِ الْعِشْقَ حَتّٰى لاَ يَرٰى

مَوْلاَيَ غَيْرَكَ كَآئِنًا بِمَكَانٍ

ثُمَّ السَّلاَمُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ الْمُصْطَفٰى

خَيْرِ الْوَرٰى وَرَسُوْلِكَ الْعَدْنَانِي

Your servant has come [to You] crying and beseeching, and making these pious personalities a wasîlah.
Forgive, then, his sins and purify his heart from everything other than You, O the refuge of the one who is in trouble.
Impose Your love upon him in such a manner that he is unable to see anyone but You irrespective of where he is, O my Master!
In the end I send peace to the chosen Prophet ﷺ who is the best of the creation and Your Messenger from the Banû 'Adnân tribe.
